(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 16.—Sixteen persons were known to have been killed in the explosion that rocked the financial district of New York at noon today.

The police believe that other bodies may have been blown to atoms.

Several of the injured in hospitals were in such a condition it was believed the death list may reach twenty-five before night.

A majority of the dead have been identified.

The explosion was almost directly in front of the offices of J. P. Morgan and Company at Broad and Wall streets.

With the police investigation not yet completed, the most likely explanation advanced to date was that a wagon load of explosives collided with an automobile in the street.

The wreckage of an automobile was piled up on Broad street and from the number it was identified as belonging to Dunham Deldon of New Jersey.

At his home it was said Deldon left his home early today for an office in Wall Street. He has not been heard from since.

Pieces of a horse was also found in the street but there is no trace of the wagon, which was drawn by the horse.

One of the theories being investigated is that the explosion was caused by a bomb in a wagon load of nitro-glycerin timed to go off at noon today.

This theory was advanced by a former high official of the police department.

The explosion struck with the de-

be Uncovered.

ALL DEPARTMENTS AT WORK

(By United Press)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—A checking of all known radicals was started here today after the explosion in the New York financial district according to government officials.

Although nothing has been discovered to show the explosion was the work of radicals, the investigating forces of several branches of the government began cooperating in the checking up process on the theory that a possible clew might be uncovered.

Approximately five hundred government detectives with the department of justice, postoffice and bureau of immigration, were investigating the explosion.

Secretary Houston got first hand information of the explosion from Assistant Secretary Gilbert, who talked over long distance with the treasury officials in New York.

Attorney General Palmer ordered all reports to be laid before him. William J. Flynn, chief of the department's bureau of investigation, will start for New York to take charge of the federal end of the investigation following a conference with Palmer.

vastating effect of a high explosive shell. Windows were shattered in the Wall street district. Pieces of human bodies were found on window sills.

The sides of the Morgan building were black marked as though it was subject to showers of shell splinters. Every policeman available, soldiers and sailors and firemen were rushed to the scene. Emergency hospitals were established and the injured were hurried away.

At the volunteer hospital hundreds of injured were cared for within an hour. They included both men and women suffering from burns, severe cuts and bruises. Most of them had been picked up on the street.

Those who were taken to the hospital unconscious were bewildered to find themselves in a hospital when they regained consciousness.

The last thing they remembered was they had just left their offices for lunch and had stepped into the street. Some remembered a blinding flash.

J. P. Morgan is in Europe. Other members of the firm were in their offices but none was injured.

TWO PETITIONS TO IMPROVE STREETS

If Successful They Will Result in
Harrison, Part of Eleventh and
Eighth Streets Being Paved.

UNDER THREE-MILE LAW

Two petitions for the permanent improvement of Rushville streets under the three-mile road law have been filed with the county board of commissioners. One of them traverses the following route:

From the south end of Harrison street to Eighth street, thence east to the Fort Wayne road and north-east to connect with the Frank H. Green cement highway, which in Rushville is Eleventh street.

The other street calls for the improvement of Harrison street north from Eighth street to Eleventh street, and west in Eleventh to the west corporation line, then north on the Bruce Graham road for a distance of about 298 feet.

The first petition is headed by Otto E. Humes and the second by Robert S. Davis.

The petitions request the use of creosoted blocks, brick or cement.

FATHER ARRESTED FOR BEATING CHILD

Howard Schomel of West Third
Street Accused of Whipping 2½
Year Old Daughter

TO BE TRIED BEFORE SQUIRE

Howard Schomel, living in West Third street in the vicinity of the Havens school building, was arrested late yesterday on an assault and battery charge and was placed in jail to await a hearing some time today, having refused to enter a plea before Squire Stech after being arrested.

The officers and prosecuting attorney A. C. Stevens state that the affair represents a most pitiful case. Neighbors in that vicinity complained and the matter was investigated. Schomel is charged with beating his 2½ year old daughter, Ruth Alverda in an unmerciful manner. The child is also suffering from spinal trouble, the officers said.

According to information furnished by neighbors, the child was given a beating Saturday afternoon that lasted for an hour, and it continued on Sunday and Monday, according to their complaints. The baby has a step-mother, it is said, and it was intimated that some kind of a charge would be preferred against her.

WATSON TO ADDRESS INDIANA CONFERENCE

Protest Against Him Speaking Before
Laymen's Association
Has No Effect

TO MAKE RELIGIOUS ADDRESS

Rushville friends of Senator James E. Watson will be pleased to learn that he will not be barred from delivering an address at Vincennes tomorrow afternoon, before the Laymen's Association of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is now in session in that city.

Objection to Senator Watson speaking was raised by Schuyler McCormick of Vincennes who addressed a letter to Dr. J. V. Stephens, secretary of the conference, who lives at Spencer, stating as his objections that "Senator Watson's record of opposition to the League of Nations should bar him respectful attention in any pulpit in the state."

Dr. Stephens replied today, stating that Senator Watson is a lay member of the Methodist church and will deliver a religious address and not a political speech, and that he can appear tomorrow afternoon, if he so desires.

Senator Watson's speech will be a discussion of the duty of the church to its ministers, especially retired ministers. His appearance need not mean that his views on political matters are sanctioned by the Laymen's Association, it is stated.

MAKING CIDER IS NOT LAW VIOLATION

Ruling of Federal Prohibition Commissioner Received Here Interprets National Act

MAY PUT UP FRUIT JUICES

Persons Permitted to Manufacture
Non-Intoxicating Drinks
Without a Permit

The ruling of John F. Kramer, federal prohibition commissioner, regarding the manufacture of non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices for use in the home, was received here today from Charles J. Orbison of Indianapolis, federal prohibition director for Indiana. It explains that persons manufacturing such non-intoxicating beverages may do so without a permit, and that they may also be sold, but certain restrictions are thrown about the purchaser, which are explained in the following ruling:

Section 29 of Title 11 of the National Prohibition Act provides that the penalties imposed in the act against the manufacture of liquor without a permit shall not apply to a person for manufacturing nonintoxicating cider and fruit juices shall not be sold or delivered except to persons having permits to manufacture vinegar.

The Bureau's interpretation of the foregoing provision is as follows: Any person may, without permit, and without giving bond, manufacture non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices, and in so doing he may take his apples or fruits to a custom mill and have them made into cider and fruit juices. After such non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices are made, they must be used exclusively in the home, and when so used, the phrase "nonintoxicating" means nonintoxicating in fact and not necessarily less than one-half of one per cent of alcohol, as provided in Section 1, of Title 11 of said Act.

Or if the person making such cider and fruit juices desires to do so, he may (1) sell such cider and fruit juices at any time to persons having permits to make vinegar; this he may do under the provisions of said Section 29. (2) If he preserves such cider and fruit juices at the time they are made, he may sell same to the public in general; this he may do under the provisions of Section 4, of Title 11, of said Act.

SAYS WOMEN ARE ALL FOR LEAGUE

Mrs. Alice Foster McCullough Addresses Democratic Meeting Here Wednesday Night

PARTY FAVORS RATIFICATION

Says Covenant Does Not Affect Congress' Power to Declare War But Imposes Moral Obligation

Mrs. Alice Foster McCullough of Fort Wayne, speaking at a democratic meeting in the coliseum last night, credited the democratic party with all the good legislation she mentioned and blamed the republican party for all the legislation she regarded as bad.

Mrs. McCullough addressed a crowd of probably four or five hundred persons, over half of whom were women, and was applauded a number of times, though with not any great vigor because the speaker evidently depended on the logic of her argument rather than any oratorical ability to impress the points she made.

The speaker praised a democratic congress for passing a child labor law and criticized a republican legislature in Indiana for refusing to pass a similar measure.

"The democratic party favors ratifying the peace treaty with clarifying reservations," declared Mrs. McCullough. "It does not claim that the league of nations will prevent war, but that it will reduce war to the minimum."

She asserted that the league is workable and that it is functioning now, which she regarded as proof enough that it would continue to operate and be a benefit to humanity.

"There are 81,000 reasons why the women of America will vote for the league," the speaker asserted. "These reasons are the boys—sons, husbands, fathers and brothers—who gave their lives during the World War."

Mrs. McCullough referred to Article 10 of the covenant, reading parts of it, and called attention to the fact that it did not stipulate expressly that America should provide soldiers to settle foreign disputes but that it states the league shall protect member nations from foreign aggression. The speaker declared.

FARMERS LIMITED TO 40 BUSHEL OF WHEAT

Are Permitted to Have Enough Seed Tested to Plant a Twenty Acre Field

PLANT WILL OPEN MONDAY

County Agent D. W. Ball today wished to call attention to the farmers who are intending to bring wheat to be treated, that the limit for one farmer is not five bushels, as previously announced, but through an error in the newspaper it was so printed. The limit this year will be forty bushels, or enough seed to plant a 20 acre field.

A confusion arose over the mentioning of five bushels, as only five bushels can be given the hot water treatment at a time, as the container will hold only that amount. The work at the treating plant is nearing completion, and will be ready for the first wheat on Monday morning.

The farmers who have signed up to bring seed wheat to the treating plant, are urged to follow the directions given them, and also make their appointments on time, so that the plan will be in continuous operation after Monday.

It is a regrettable fact that the mistake about the limit of wheat, was published, but the farmers who intend to bring the wheat will learn differently by reading the instructions sent out by the county agent. There are still a few open dates, and those who wish to be booked for the treatment, may avail themselves of the opportunity, if they act at once.

BLACK ELECTED 5TH CONSECUTIVE TIME

Local Pastor Again Chosen M. E. Conference Statistician—Report Shows Church Flourishes

EXPECTS TO BE RETURNED

The Rev. C. S. Black, pastor of the M. E. church in this city, is attending the Indiana annual conference this week at Vincennes, and is busily engaged on the board of examiners testing the merits and fitness of candidates for the Methodist ministry. The local pastor was also re-elected as the conference statistician for the fifth consecutive year, and has charge of the work of compiling the statistics for the entire conference of 320 pastoral charges.

The Rev. Mr. Black expects to be returned to Rushville for his fourth year, and reported the best record of the history of the local church, which closed its church year last Sunday. The report of the Rev. Mr. Black stated that there are 760 members in the congregation, a net gain of 55 for the year.

During the year there was also 29 adults and 7 infants baptized. The congregation has paid in cash for all purposes, the total sum of $14,500, of which $9,000 went to the support of the benevolent enterprises of the local church.

During the year which closed last Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Black conducted 38 funerals and officiated at 43 wedding ceremonies.

JURY STILL HAS CONTRACT SUIT

No Decision This Afternoon in Case of Y. Stout Against O. N. Brown Which Started Yesterday

CHANGE OF VENUE GRANTED

$10,000 Damage Suit of Ralph Pitman Against Glen Somerville Sent to Fayette County

The case which started in circuit court yesterday of Will Y. Stout against Oliver N. Brown, was concluded with the evidence and arguments last evening, and this morning the jury was instructed and the case was then turned over to them for a decision, but this afternoon, no verdict had been rendered at three o'clock.

Stout brought the suit against Brown, alleging damages for a breach of contract, and demanded $295 judgment. The witnesses were examined yesterday, and the arguments were conclude before court adjourned late yesterday.

The jury this morning was instructed in writing by Judge Sparks, and had the case at 9:15.

Judge Sparks' this afternoon was busy hearing a juvenile case, which was filed this morning in that court, and involved the negligence of a baby.

The $10,000 damage suit filed recently by Ralph Pitman of near Glenwood, against Glen Somerville, a local high school boy, has been sent to the Fayette county circuit court on a change of venue, the plaintiff being granted the change.

Somerville is alleged to have driven his automobile carelessly and negligently along the public highway in Glenwood this spring, and struck the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pitman, killing the child instantly.

The father at that time filed a manslaughter charge against the high school boy, but the grand jury investigated and returned an ignomastous to the charge, which dismissed the action.

A few days ago the plaintiff in the action, filed a petition with the court, asking for a change from the county stating that he could not be given a fair and impartial trial in this county.

Preston Grubbs dismissed his case against William H. Eikenberry and Alva N. Harold, to foreclose a

FOR PATHE NEWS WEEKLY

Hustle and Bustle at City Park Today Preparing for County-Wide Event Tomorrow

 Town To Be Closed Tight
 Rushville will be closed tight as a wedge tomorrow from 11 until 3 o'clock. All places of business will shut their doors and even the postoffice, which ordinarily closes only on legal holidays, will break its long custom and follow the lead of the merchants. Deliveries will be made and mail dispatched as usual.

Definite assurance that the community picnic at the city park tomorrow would be filmed for Pathe News was received today by Walter F. Easley, chairman of the amusements committee. The fame of Rush county as a producer of chickens as well as chicken eaters will thus be spread throughout the middlewest, and there is a chance that if the thing looks big enough to the Pathe people, that it will be included in the regular news weekly shown in practically every town and city in the United States.

Mr. Easley went to Indianapolis Tuesday to invite a camera man to Rushville Friday to take a picture of the event. He received an indefinite answer, but this morning a message came by telephone that if the weather does not interfere, there will be a lot of "shooting" going on tomorrow when the festivities get well under way.

It is probable that not all of the film made here will be put in the regular Pathe weekly, but the whole thing will be preserved and an effort will be made to get it here. It is possible that it would be valuable

There was a lot of hustle and bustle at the city park today in making preparations for the big day tomorrow. The four tents under which the chicken dinners will be served were being erected, as were the serving tables. The service will be of the cafeteria order, three townships being stationed under each tent. Every person is urged to take a fork and spoon with them.

Button hole tags were being distributed in Rushville today to make sure that every guest who had an invitation would be properly labeled. The guests will include every business man in Rush county, his family and his employees; also the ministers of the county and all of the postal employees, together with their families. The guests of the farmers are expected to be at the I. & C. traction station at 11:15 tomorrow morning and form a parade to the city park.

FORM A NATIONAL ROOSEVELT BODY

Charles Hughes, Elihu Root and Major Gen. Wood Named as Presidents of Association

FOR A LIVING MEMORIAL

Name Committee to Provide Living Memorial For Advancement of Roosevelt Ideas

New York, Sept. 16—Charles E. Hughes, Elihu Root and Major-Gen. Leonard Wood were named as honorary presidents of the Roosevelt Memorial Association by the executive committee, which made formal transfer of the funds and records of the unincorporated body to the permanent association formed recently by Congressional charter. This is an important step toward the memorial which is to stand for all time as a nation's tribute to the great American.

The honorary vice-presidents elected the Henry Cabot Lodge, Hiram W. Johnson and James R. Garfield. William Boyce Thompson, is active president of the association, William Loeb, Jr., vice-president, Albert H. Wiggin treasurer and Hermann Hagedorn secretary. Austen Colgate heads the new executive committee, whose membership includes Will H. Hays, A. T. Hert, Charles S. Hughes, Irwin R. Kirkwood, Franklin K. Lane, William Loeb, Jr., Elihu Root, Harry F. Sinclair and Albert H. Wiggin. Mr. Root is chairman of a committee to provide a monument as a memorial in Washington and Mr. Loeb of a committee to establish a permanent memorial park in Oyster Bay.

Theodore Roosevelt's spirit is to be kept alive and fresh in the minds of the people whom he knew so well. Gifford Pinchot, long-time friend of the Colonel, is named as chairman of a committee whose purpose will be to provide a living memorial for the advancement of Roosevelt's ideals. Members of that committee are men and women whose lives were touched and influenced by those ideals. They are Lawrence F. Abbott, Carl E. Akeley, Henry J. Allen, Hermann Hagedorn, Henry C. Lindsley, Mrs. Medill McCormick, J. J. McGraw, Dwight W. Morrow, Mrs. C. A. Severance, Oscar S. Straus, Mark Sullivan, E. A. Van Valkenburg, Henry C. Wallace and William Wrigley, Jr.

Spread upon the records of the new association is a remarkable tribute to Seth Bullock "devoted servant of the cause which brought the memorial plan into existence, and who gladly gave his life as a forfeit to it."

"The sun and the wind and the open spaces of this earth that saw Theodore Roosevelt and Seth Bullock riding side by side in the pursuit of clean adventure have now seen Seth Bullock disappear over the trail which his friends had taken before him," the striking resolution recited. Other memorials were adopted by the committee in memory of John Mitchell and George W. Perkins, both friends of Roosevelt, who gave and did much to promote the memorial association.

BONAR LAW 62 TODAY

London, Sept. 16.—Andrew Bonar Law, Conservative leader, and virtually assistant Premier to Lloyd George, celebrated his 52d birthday today, and was the recipient of hearty congratulations from all parties. Born in New Brunswick, Canada, Bonar Law did not enter British politics until 1900 but so quickly did he make his mark that when Arthur James Balfour resigned the leadership of the Conservative and Unionist parties ten years later, he was selected for the post, which he has held ever since.

MEXICAN RAILROAD PROBLEM SERIOUS

Torreón Once Center of Network of Lines Now Boasts One Train a Day From Capital to Border

BANDITS WRECK RAILWAYS

De La Huerta Government Have Taken Steps to Replenish Equipment in Purchases From U. S.

By RALPH H. TURNER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Torreón, Coahuila, Mexico, August, 28 (By Mail).—The run-down condition of Mexico's railroads probably is better illustrated in Torreón than in any other city of the Republic. In the heart of a wealthy agricultural and mining district, supporting smelters and various other industries, Torreón rightfully earned its position as one of the country's leading railroad centers.

But with the present depreciated condition of the Mexican railroads, Torreón is not receiving just dividends from the network of rail lines that passes through the city.

The conductor operating from Mexico City to Torreón threw light on the situation as his train neared this city five hours late.

"Only one train a day," he explained, "leaves the capital on the northward trip to Ciudad, Jarez, via Torreón. That might be sufficient if there were any local trains. But there are not. And there are scarcely any freight trains, either. As a result, everything possible is shipped by express and this train, the only passenger train on the line, must stop at every station to load or unload merchandise."

There are no local trains, because there are not sufficient cars nor engines. The same explanation goes for the scarcity of freights. Frequently, three or four freight cars are hooked on to a passenger train causing heavy delay to passengers who may have some concern as to when they reach their destination.

So long as the scarcity of rolling stock continues, so long must a shipper resort to graft if he desires to obtain a car in reasonable time. By the clink of gold within hearing distance of a petty railroad official, the merchant may obtain his necessary freight space. Without this jingle, his chances are materially decreased. Torreón, with its many agricultural and manufactured products is one of the heaviest sufferers from this shortage of cars. Three American smelters, located in this district, are more fortunate. They own their own cars.

Ten years of revolution naturally have played havoc with the Mexican railroad system. Today it probably has reached the lowest ebb, consistent with any functioning whatever. Cars have been destroyed by rebel and bandit factions, the sides have been torn from others to be used for fire wood, bridges have been destroyed and hastily reconstructed and parts of the roadbed have been greatly damaged. In all this time, little money has been spent for maintenance.

The De la Huerta government, however, has recognized that the railroad problem is one of the most pressing in the entire country and already has taken steps to replenish the equipment in purchases from the United States. There is some discussion, also, of returning the roads to the American bondholder, but no definite decision has been reached.

In one respect the railway is a vast improvement over the conditions which existed under Carranza. With the increased pacification of the country in the past two months, it is now possible for the trains to run at night, a rick that was never taken with dynamites abroad. Nine trains arrive in Torreón daily and nine depart, but until the present all the incoming trains reached the city in the evening and the outgoing trains all left in the morning. With the belief that it is now safe to operate at night, the railroad administration plans to rearrange the schedule.

Free Propaganda

While Candidate Cox rails at the republicans for raising a large campaign fund, the government's mails are being laden with free political propaganda obviating the necessity of the democratic organization paying this heavy item of expense. Attention has recently been called to

Sen. of War Baker's speech, delivered at the democratic state convention in Ohio, being franked through the mails, and now further light is shed on the methods of the democratic campaign managers by a dispatch from Washington to a New York newspaper.

The dispatch describes sacks of bulging mail piled on the marble corridors of the house of representatives building, which will be used to flood the country with propaganda at a minimum cost to the democratic war chest but at some expense to the taxpayers and to the detriment of the white paper supply.

The Washington story further relates that on the first floor of the office building as the headquarters of Representative Henry D. Flood, (Va.), chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, who is directing the attempt to elect a Democratic House. The offices are large and commodious and are rent free to the Democrats, despite the fact that they are being used for a purely political purpose now.

The stacks of bulging mail sacks stretch on either side of the Democratic suite. At one time eight large piles of sacks were counted. In three of the piles there were more than fifty sacks by actual count. Other piles were somewhat smaller, but the eight piles easily totaled more than 200 sacks. Near the top of each of these sacks was a slip showing that it contained Democratic speeches printed at the Government Printing Office. As part of the Congressional Record the speeches, while avowedly campaign propaganda, can be circulated to the voters free of postage.

Thus the Democratic campaign managers by using careful economy, can distribute many speeches at small cost. They can get them printed at Government printing office at cost. They can have them folded and delivered to their offices for which they pay no rent. They can store them in the corridors for visitors and House employees to walk around or trip over. Practically the only operation the Democrats have to pay for is the addressing of envelopes and stuffing the speeches back into the mail sacks from whence they came.

Just what part the speeches are going to play in the campaign is not clear. Most of them were delivered weeks ago. It is not within reason to suppose, therefore, that any considerable number of voters will sit down by the fireside to read the speeches in order to be convinced that voting for a Democrat is the thing to do.

Officials at the Capitol say there is no way that the use of public buildings for purely partisan purposes can be stopped even though any of them had a mind to do so. It was pointed out, however, that Republicans, who could have taken advantage of their privileges, have hired a suite of offices in a downtown office building here as their campaign headquarters.

Gov. Cox exclaimed in a speech at Anaconda, Montana that the "proofs of my charges are falling like dew from Heaven", but the "proofs" of the governors' charges are standing the temperature on earth about like dew in Hades.

There is an income-taxpayer in one out of every four families and 4,900,000 out of 5,000,000 who pay income tax, pay it on incomes of $5,000 or less. They will probably do a lot of thinking before they go to the polls election day.

It is rumored that Frank Roosevelt is having trouble with his voice. It would be a source of great regret on the part of the Republicans if he or Gov. Cox either were compelled to leave the sthmp.

The French government is going to resell the immense lot of war material which it bought from the United States for a mere song in order to raise funds to meet the interest on a foreign loan.

There is a lot of difference between being cock-sure and Cox-sure.

DECLARES ROOSEVELT
MUST STAND CORRECTED

R. F. Webb of Charlottesville, Va., writing to the Sun and New York Herald, says that Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic candidate for vice-president, will have to stand corrected on a statement he made recently in regard to the league of nations. Mr. Webb is evidently a student of the question and points out in the following where the candidate made a very grievous error in an assertion in regard America's voting strength:

In explaining his reported statement as to the votes controlled by the United States in the League of Nations Mr. Roosevelt disposes of the 6 to 1 vote of Great Britain in this wise: "All of this discussion, however, is of a very secondary importance in view of the clear statement in Article V. of the League of Nations: 'Decisions at any meeting of the Assembly or of the Council' shall require the agreement of all members of the League represented in the meeting." Following this statement we find this language: "Furthermore, it is well known that the Council is the true governing body of the League".

Mr. Roosevelt did not begin his quotation at the opening of the sentence from which it was taken, and that makes a difference. The complete sentence is necessary in order to get at the truth of the matter. It follows:

Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant or by the terms of the present treaty, decisions at any meetings of the Assembly or of the Council shall require the agreement of all the members of the League represented at the meeting.—Paragraph 1, Article V.

I shall call attention to two instances in the covenant alone where it is "otherwise expressly provided". First: "All matters of procedure at meetings of the Assembly or of the council, including the appointment of committees to investigate particular matters, shall be regulated by the Assembly or by the Council and may be decided by a majority of the members of the League represented at the meeting". (Paragraph 2, Article V).

Second: "In any case referred to the Assembly all the provisions of this article and of Article XII, relating to the action and powers of the council shall apply to the action and powers of the Assembly, provided that a report made by the Assembly, if concurred in by the representatives of those members of the League represented on the Council and of a majority of the other members of the League, exclusive in each case of the representatives of the parties to the dispute, shall have the same force as a report by the Council concurred in by all the members thereof other than the representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute". (Last paragraph, Article XV.) This is not unanimity, and one will see that it is quite important if one but reads Article XV. in its entirety.

I am not prepared to say how many times it is "otherwise expressly provided" in the treaty proper.

In regard to the Council being 'the true governing body' the statement must be modified to some extent. The covenant says "The Assembly may deal at its meetings with any matter within the sphere of action of the League as affecting the peace of the world" (paragraph 3, Article III.), and "the Council may in any case under this article refer the dispute to the Assembly. The dispute shall be so referred at the request of either party to the dispute, provided that such request be made within fourteen days after the submission of the dispute to the Council". (Paragraph 9, Article XV.), immediately following this is the paragraph quoted above setting forth the fact that a unanimous decision is not necessary.

The Imp Almost Takes in Some Money

GAMBLING STILL POPULAR IN CITIES

Prohibition of Whiskey Has Had Little or no Effect on Prevalence of Gambling in U. S.

CRAPS FAVORITE SPORT

Police Authorities in Eighteen Cities Furnished United Press With Information

New York, Sept. 16—Prohibition of whiskey, wines and beer has had little or no net effect on the prevalence of gambling throughout the United States, according to reports furnished the United Press by police authorities in eighteen cities.

Replying to the question whether there was a decrease or increase of gambling, such as racetrack betting, poker playing, crap shooting and the like—nine cities showed opinions that there was a decrease, while nine said gaming had increased since the country went dry.

In nearly every city, however, officials said shooting dice was the favorite sport of a large majority of gamblers, with poker, bookmaking and baseball pools following in order.

Following is a digest of the replies from the police and local authorities.

NEW YORK—Gambling has increased here within the last year. Police and plainclothed men have made more frequent raids and the number of arrests has been 40 percent greater than heretofore. Craps, poker, lotteries, and bookmaking have appeared to be the favorite forms of gaming. Most of the police raids have been in the former tenderloin district, where also there have been numerous raids on bootleggers.

CHICAGO—There has been a decrease in gambling in Chicago, according to Chief of Police Garrity. There have been practically no complaints of poker playing or bookmaking, but "African golf" (craps) games have been discovered scores of times on the Lake front.

PHILADELPHIA—Gambling here is on the decline, said Superintendent of Police Mills, who was inclined to credit the condition to greater police vigilance rather than to an actual falling off of the "sport." Shooting craps leads in popularity. Arrests have been few.

BOSTON—There is a "slight increase" in gambling here, police say. Poker and craps appear to be running a neck and neck race for popularity. While there have not been more than a dozen main raids in a year, police assert they have encountered more gambling this year formerly.

CLEVELAND—The gambling fever has hit the old and young, the strong and the weak, police says. "Everybody" is indulging, they said, and the net result in Cleveland is there is a "tremendous" increase in gaming here. Police have been busy arresting professional gamblers but family "affairs" have for the most part been unmolested.

DETROIT—Gambling is on the increase here. Police declare most arrests in the last year have been race track and crap gamblers.

SAN FRANCISCO—Gambling has increased "heavily" here in the past twelve months, police said. Dice, poker, Chinese lotteries and race-track betting have been the subjects of most frequently raided "parties."

WASHINGTON — Proximity of racetracks to Washington have made betting the chief form of gaming here, police said. Generally speaking, however, they said, gambling has shown a "marked" decrease in the past year.

INDIANAPOLIS — Chief Jerry Kinney of the local police declared gaming has increased here in the past year. Crap shooting leads all other forms of amusement, he said. There have been few poker games raided.

ATLANTA—"Mississippi marbles" "7 come 11," or just plain craps have furnished most of the amusement in Atlanta, where gambling has decreased in the period since prohibition, said the chief of police. Most of the "arrestees" have been negroes.

ST. PAUL—There are practically no gambling "joints" in St. Paul and gambling here has "greatly" decreased, police say. Numerous raids on slot machines, poker games and the like have "cleared 'em all out," they declared.

DALLAS—Most of the gambling here recently has been among Negroes and workers in neighboring oil fields. The "amusement" has seen quite a slack time, however, police say. Police have heard reports of fabulous sums said to have been won or lost in the course of an evening's sitting around a "pair of bones," but few arrests have been made.

COLUMBUS—Police here have been carrying on a campaign against gambling in any form, and as a result there has been a noticeable decrease in gaming. There have been several recent raids on downtown "mushroom" joints, however.

SAN ANTONIO—Poker and craps lead in popularity here as "ruff-neck" gambling amusements, while dominoes flourish in the clubs and homes. On the whole, however, there has been a decrease in games of risk.

OKLAHOMA CITY — Wiseacres say gambling is increasing here. Poker for the old folks and "galloping dominoes" for the younger generation are the favorite forms.

SURINGFIELD, ILLS.—Fan tan, craps and poker games abound hereabouts, police declare. There has been a "big increase" in gambling in the past year, they say.

CONTROVERSY UP TO LABOR FEDERATION

Solution of Affairs in Italy Involving 2,000,000 Workers, Will be Decided by Them

GOVERNMENT IN A WARNING

Rome, Sept. 16—Solution of the economic controversy in Italy has passed into the hands of the confederation of labor representing nearly 2,000,000 workers and the confederation of industry representing more than $2,000,000,000 capital, according to Senator Conti.

The meeting of the confederation of industry in Milan was expected to reach an epoch-making decision effecting Italy's national and industrial future.

Manufacturers were not in opposition to a plan to permit workers to share in profiteering and allow representation in the administration of each industry. They opposed, however, any attempt of the union to intervene in the action of manufacturers or limit the technical financial direction, it was learned from an authoritative source.

The government which has stepped into the present negotiations at Milan, still maintains the "hands off" policy. The government issued a warning that armed intervention will follow immediately any attempt to throw the conflict into a political struggle.

WOMEN JURORS SERVED INDIAN WAR MOTHERS AT BRISTOL SESSIONS ORGANIZE AT BISMARCK

Counsel Prosecuting in First Case Congratulated Them on at Last Taking Their Proper Place

Result of Plan Formulated by Mrs. French National War Mother, on Recent Visit to North Dakota

ONE OF THEM APPREHENSIVE

Bristol, (By Mail)—Women jurors have just served at the Bristol Sessions for the first time.

Counsel prosecuting in the first case paid them a warm tribute. "I congratulate you on at last taking your proper place in the jurisdiction of the country," he said "and I congratulate the cause of justice itself."

The women jurors, however, were not quite certain how much congratulation they required. One of them was apprehensive about her three children whom she had to leave unattended, and another had been obliged to close her shop to serve on the jury.

This was probably their first taste of the bitter which has to be swallowed with the sweets of sex-equality.

SAYS WOMEN ARE ALL FOR LEAGUE

clared that since the vote of the council of nine members shall be unanimous and that the general assembly is only for discussing questions coming before the league, the following might be deducted:

"That the league of nations does not place the United States in a position where it might be coerced into war.

"The league does not place peace above justice and that there may be times when war is justifiable.

"The league does not prevent the union of existing nations.

"The league does not affect the power of congress to declare war though congress would be morally bound by the covenant."

Mrs. McCullough said that women all over the country favor the league because it is the only method of preventing war. She asserted Gov. Cox had stated he favored going in while Sen. Harding, in endeavoring to please the various elements in his party, had made uncertain statements regarding his position on the peace treaty. The speaker ridiculed Harding's record and attitude on prohibition and woman's suffrage and quoted some of his statements.

Mrs. McCullough said the democratic party favors the recognition of women in every line and a revision of the civil service to place them on an equal footing with men. She emphasized the necessity of organization and urged women, who had not registered to do so, that they might be qualified for voting.

A parade led by the Odd Fellows band was formed before the meeting.

THOMPSON MEN LEAD.

(By United Press)
Chicago, Ill., Sept. 16.—Candidates backed by Mayor Thompson for the republican state and national offices again lead today in latest returns from yesterday's state primary. The Thompson candidates swelled their total by heavy returns from Chicago, where the slate apparently won in a landslide.

INDIANS FOUGHT IN THE WAR

(By United Press)

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 16.—The first chapter of Indian War Mothers has been organized at Standing Rock as a part of the American War Mothers. This was the result of a plan formulated by Mrs. Alice French, national war mother on her recent visit to Bismarck and carried out by the women of the Bismarck chapter of the organization.

One hundred and eighteen young Indian braves enlisted in the United States army at the outbreak of the war from the Standing Rock and Fort Yates districts. They went overseas and several distinguished themselves for bravery in the Argonne fighting.

Standing Rock is Sitting Bull's old agency. It was from here he led his warriors to the Custer massacre on the Little Big Horn in 1876. Here he made his home after his return from his long exile in Canada and here was killed by Indian police during the ghost-dancing excitement of 1889-90 which reached its climax at the battle of Wounded Knee.

Within the memory of the Indian mothers now united by the war with the white mothers of the nation, the Sioux were deadly enemies of the whites and visited with fire and death the lonely settlements on the prairies where now the homes of immigrants present a picture of peace and prosperity. With the war path forgot, the Standing Rock Indians are learning the customs of civilization and have acquired considerable farm wealth. Many of the later generation are well educated and a number of the young men and women are college graduates.

SUIT ON ACCOUNT

Unwoven Persian Rugs.

The author of a book called "When I Was a Boy in Persia" says that certain rugs used in Persian houses have not yet found a place in the American market. These are large felt carpets called lumta. They are made, not by weaving, but by beating the wool together and then pressing it. They are very thick, warm and noiseless, with red, cream and white borders, and with a field dotted with red, black, white, green, blue and golden circles of wool—quite a Joseph's coat in color.—The Outlook.

"Sick Abed"—Princess Theater

Wallace Reid in a spirited screen version of the stage farce, "Sick Abed," will be the attraction at the Princess Theatre today and tomorrow.

The story concerns one Reginald Jay, who gets himself into laughable complications through trying to help an old friend of his father's out of a scrape. The latter has earned the wrath of his jealous wife because he went to a roadhouse with a certain lady customer of his firm. Reginald is wanted as a star witness in the pending divorce suit. To escape, he feigns sick and a pretty nurse is assigned to attend him. Not only does Reggie put over the deception successfully, but he wins the nurse in the bargain.

Vivacious Bebe Daniels figures as the nurse and an excellent comedy team-mate for Mr. Reid. Winifred Greenwood, John Stepping and Tully Marshall are also in the supporting cast. The picture, which is a Paramount Arteract, was directed by Sam Wood.

Four of the best known screen and stage stars, thirty principals and a supporting cast of more than a hundred, are seen in the screen version of the famous story "Tribly" a Republic release which is to be shown at the Mystic theatre tomorrow. Clara Kimball Young, Wilton Lackaye, Chester Barnett and Paul McAllister are the featured players in this famous drama. The screen version was directed by Maurice Tourneur, one of the foremost directors of the screen.

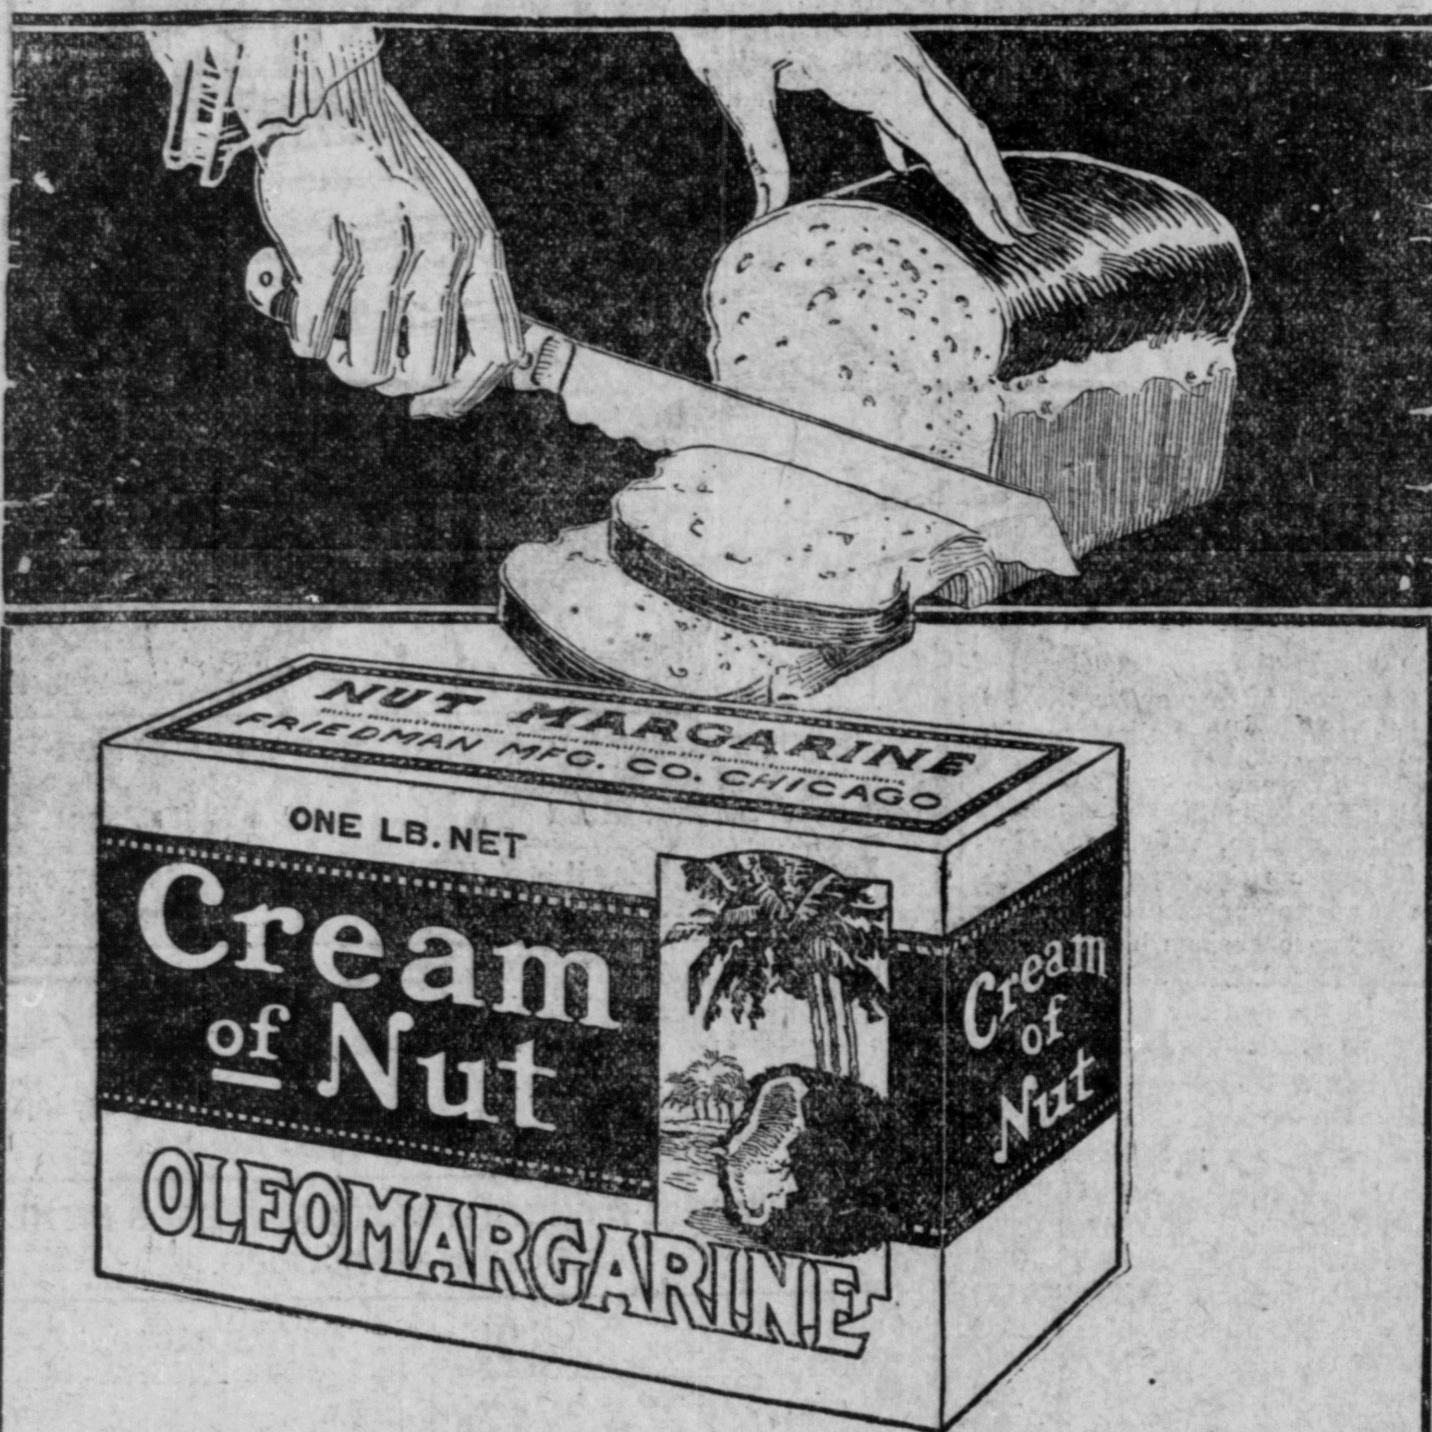

The famous story, "Tribly" was first put on the stage in London in 1895 and Wilton Lackaye had the original role of the character "Sven gali". Now that the drama has been given a screen version all the big scenes are included and every dramatic point of the entire story has been brought out to the fullest extent. This production ranks as one of the greatest screen triumphs of years, and Miss Young, who has many successes to her credit, is seen in the most dramatic role of her career.

"Tribly" as a screen play, is most entertaining, gripping drama and many things have been accomplished that would have been utterly impossible to other than a well trained group of players.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Mr. James H. JAPAN MAY GET OUT OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Will Make Fight For Recognition of Racial Equality When General Assembly Meets Nov. 15

IF SHE LOSES, MAY WITHDRAW.

Paris, Sept. 16—The question of racial equality for Japan, over which the Versailles peace conference nearly split, will be one of the most important problems to come before the general assembly of the league of nations which is scheduled to meet November 15, in Geneva, in pursuance to the call of President Wilson.

Having failed to get recognition in the treaty of Versailles owing largely to the opposition of American and British colonial delegations, Japan proposes to bring the matter before the league assembly, it was learned today.

The belief is expressed that if Japan fails to get the racial equality that would give her immigrants equal rights and privileges with those of other countries, she will withdraw from the league.

In preparation for the fight she expects to make, Japan has reserved accommodations at Geneva for the largest delegation that has yet made known their intentions of attending the assembly meeting.

DESCHANEL TO RESIGN

Paris, Sept. 16—President Deschanel is to resign this week, the French foreign office admitted today. The president is suffering from neurasthenia, it was said, and his mental condition is worse than his physical condition.

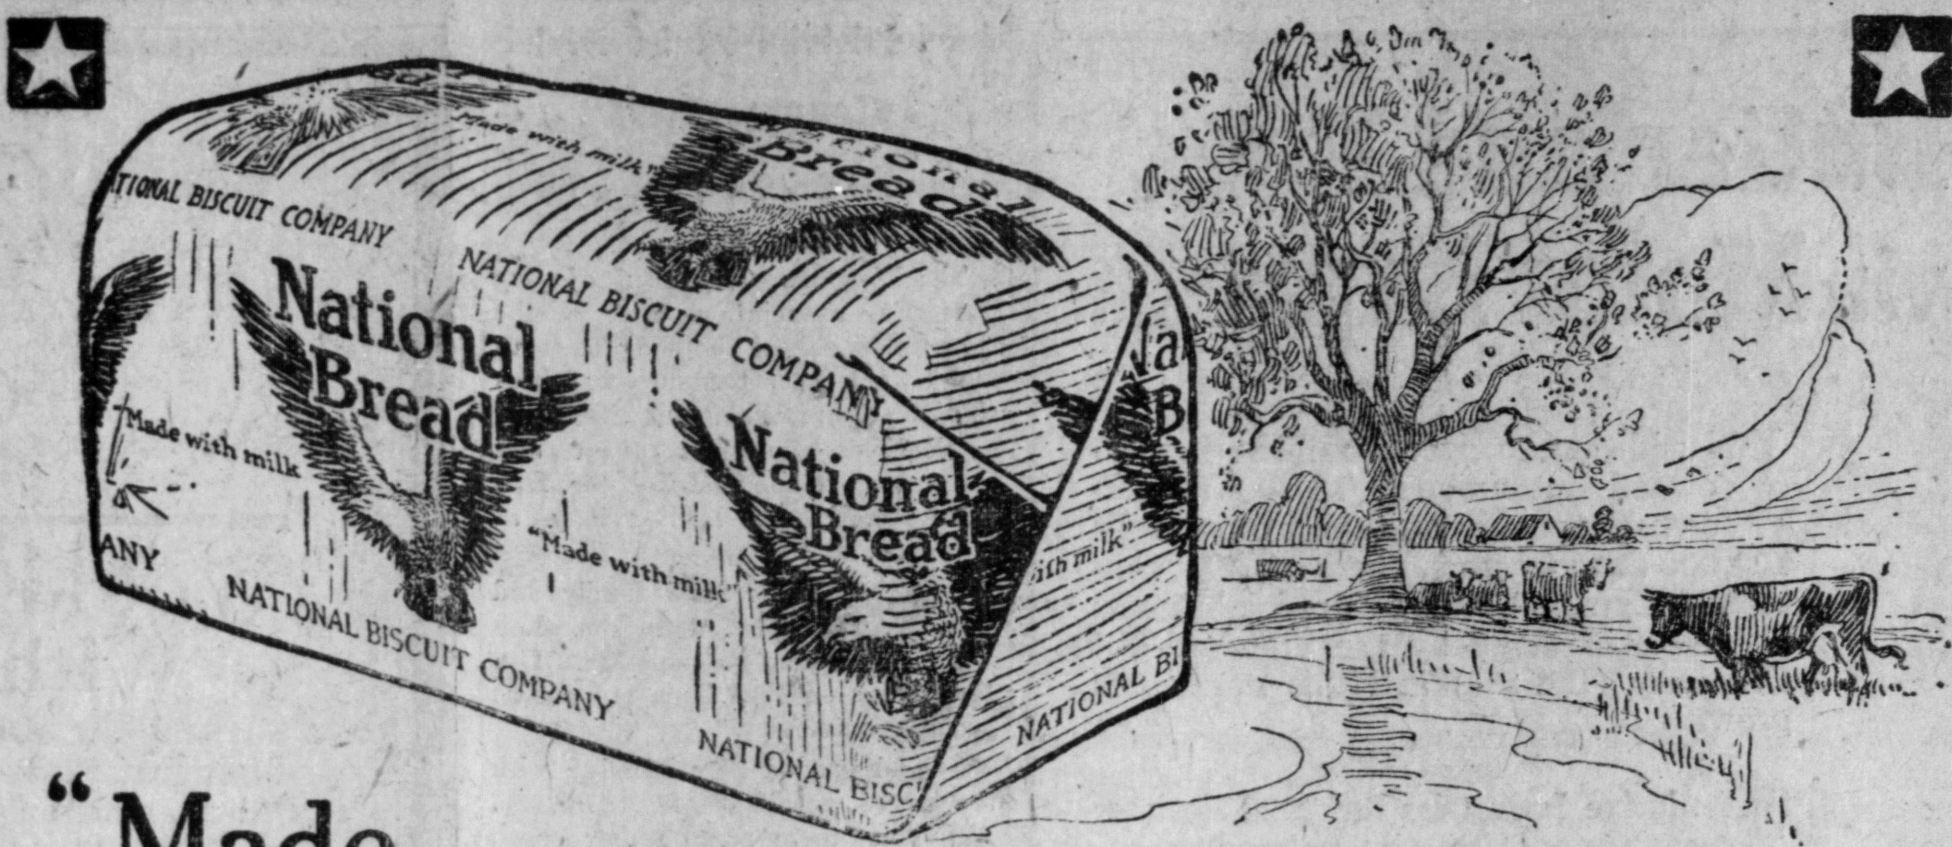

PRESIDENT IS INVITED

Is Asked to Take Part in Democratic Campaign This Fall

New York, Sept. 16—President Wilson is to be invited by the Democratic national committee to participate actively in the campaign for Governor Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

This announcement was made by George White, national chairman of the democratic committee, following a receipt of information from Washington that the president would be willing to make such an effort if he were able.

Senator Harrison of the democratic speaker's bureau said that the only reason why the president had not been heretofore asked to assist in the campaign was on account of his physical condition would not permit.

Butter and Eggs via Motor Express

IN addition to over a million farmer-owned automobiles, 18,000 farmer-owned trucks, and approximately 100,000 farm tractors, there are 519 motorized Express Companies doing business in the states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and this number is growing day by day.

Automotive Industries for 1920 declares "Trucks are operating on railroad schedules, and have proved more dependable, on a time basis, than the steam roads have ever been. Their use to replace the freight car for certain classes of freight has proved a marked success."

The Smithsonian Institute, United States National Museum Bulletin 102, says, "In respect to prompt delivery of farm produce, whether to railways or directly to towns, the motor truck has an exceptionally useful opportunity."

It is these motor trucks, tractors and farmer-owned automobiles that are largely increasing gasoline consumption, particularly in the Middle West.

During the first four months of 1920, the production of gasoline increased 13 1/2%, while during the same period, domestic consumption of gasoline increased 33 1/2%. This excess of consumption over production has been a potent factor in the advance of gasoline prices, but the dominant underlying reason has been the increase in the cost of crude oil.

The service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) lies in manufacturing and distributing to the tractor, the truck, and the automobile a dependable supply of gasoline and lubricating oils, and selling them at a fair price. The latest refinery methods are producing a continually increasing percentage of gasoline from each barrel of crude oil. While large-scale production and distribution assure maximum economy in this industry, the savings effected by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are utilized to hold down gasoline prices despite the rising tide of demand for petroleum products.

They are really two pairs of glasses in one—two fused together without any visible joining. There is no prominent seam or joint to tell the public that the wearer is "getting along in years."

With our Invisible Bifocals even your closest friends cannot detect that you are wearing double vision glasses. Call and see them.

WILL TALK ENTRANCE OF LEGION IN POLITICS

Convention of American Legion to Meet in Cleveland Sept. 27 and Will Run For Three Days

ADVOCATE LEGION TICKET.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 16—When the convention of the American Legion meets in Cleveland on Sept. 27, to run for three days, the question of the entrance of the veterans' organization into politics is certain to come up for discussion according to reports gathered from various states by the American Legion Legion Weekly. California Legionnaires have advocated placing a Legion ticket in the field and unofficial reports from Oklahoma and Tennessee have told of the activity of individual Legionnaires in the campaigns of candidates for state and national public offices. The attention of the Legionnaires in these campaigns has been focussed on the candidates war records.

Friendly rivalry between various cities for the 1921 convention of the Legion now is being manifested. Bids for next year's meeting will be advanced by at least four big cities through their delegates. San Francisco, Detroit, Kansas City and New Orleans already are in the competition and many other cities are expected to follow their lead.

FRESHLY SAWED MAPLE DESTROYED BY INSECTS

Edinburg Lumber Company Reports
Big Loss to a Pile of Lumber in
Their Yards

ENTOMOLOGIST IS INFORMED.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 16.—An undetermined species of insect has ruined over $6,000 of freshly sawed maple in the yards of the Amos Lumber Co. at Edinburg in the last few days, according to a report of the company to the state department of conservation. Only meager information of the destruction came to the state entomologist with an appeal for him to come to Edinburg at once and wage war on the devastating insect. According to the lumber company, the loss was not observed until a day or so ago. So rapidly has the insect worked that several thousand dollars worth of sawed maple is ruined and rendered worthless and more timber is threatened. State Entomologist Wallace will personally investigate the situation. The powder post beetle is causing serious damage in several Indianapolis homes, reports to the department show. It appears the beetles infested rough lumber used inside the veneer work. The best evidence at hand show the beetles have been at work for a year or two in this rough interior and now, having eaten their way through the veneer and varnish, are appearing in considerable numbers on the exterior of the finished wood. Little can be done where the infected wood is in a house, but the rest can be promptly eradicated by kiln drying the lumber, Mr. Wallace says. He advises that after the lumber has been kiln dried it should be stacked away from lumber not so treated and of which there is danger of the beetle infesting.

(By United Press)

New York, Sept. 16.—Sixteen persons were known to have been killed in the explosion that rocked the financial district of New York at noon today.

The police believe that other bodies may have been blown to atoms.

Several of the injured in hospitals were in such a condition it was believed the death list may reach twenty-five before night.

A majority of the dead have been identified.

The explosion was almost directly in front of the offices of J. P. Morgan and Company at Broad and Wall streets.

With the police investigation not yet completed, the most likely explanation advanced to date was that a wagon load of explosives collided with an automobile in the street.

The wreckage of an automobile was piled up on Broad street and from the number it was identified as belonging to Dunham Deldon of New Jersey.

At his home it was said Deldon left his home early today for an office in Wall Street. He has not been heard from since.

Pieces of a horse was also found in the street but there is no trace of the wagon, which was drawn by the horse.

One of the theories being investigated is that the explosion was caused by a bomb in a wagon load of nitro-glycerin timed to go off at noon today.

This theory was advanced by a former high official of the police department.

The explosion struck with the de-

(By United Press)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 16.—A checking of all known radicals was started here today after the explosion in the New York financial district according to government officials.

Although nothing has been discovered to show the explosion was the work of radicals, the investigating forces of several branches of the government began cooperating in the checking up process on the theory that a possible clew might be uncovered.

Approximately five hundred government detectives with the department of justice, postoffice and bureau of immigration, were investigating the explosion.

Secretary Houston got first hand information of the explosion from Assistant Secretary Gilbert, who talked over long distance with the treasury officials in New York.

Attorney General Palmer ordered all reports to be laid before him. William J. Flynn, chief of the department's bureau of investigation, will start for New York to take charge of the federal end of the investigation following a conference with Palmer.

vastating effect of a high explosive shell. Windows were shattered in the Wall street district. Pieces of human bodies were found on window sills.

The sides of the Morgan building were black marked as though it was subject to showers of shell splinters. Every policeman available, soldiers and sailors and firemen were rushed to the scene. Emergency hospitals were established and the injured were hurried away.

At the volunteer hospital hundreds of injured were cared for within an hour. They included both men and women suffering from burns, severe cuts and bruises. Most of them had been picked up on the street.

Those who were taken to the hospital unconscious were bewildered to find themselves in a hospital when they regained consciousness.

The last thing they remembered was they had just left their offices for lunch and had stepped into the street. Some remembered a blinding flash.

J. P. Morgan is in Europe. Other members of the firm were in their offices but none was injured.

TWO PETITIONS TO IMPROVE STREETS

If Successful They Will Result in
Harrison, Part of Eleventh and
Eighth Streets Being Paved.

UNDER THREE-MILE LAW

Two petitions for the permanent improvement of Rushville streets under the three-mile road law have been filed with the county board of commissioners. One of them traverses the following route:

From the south end of Harrison street to Eighth street, thence east to the Fort Wayne road and north-east to connect with the Frank H. Green cement highway, which in Rushville is Eleventh street.

The other street calls for the improvement of Harrison street north from Eighth street to Eleventh street, and west in Eleventh to the west corporation line, then north on the Bruce Graham road for a distance of about 298 feet.

The first petition is headed by Otto E. Humes and the second by Robert S. Davis.

The petitions request the use of creosoted blocks, brick or cement.

FATHER ARRESTED FOR BEATING CHILD

Howard Schomel of West Third
Street Accused of Whipping 2½
Year Old Daughter

TO BE TRIED BEFORE SQUIRE

Howard Schomel, living in West Third street in the vicinity of the Havens school building, was arrested late yesterday on an assault and battery charge and was placed in jail to await a hearing some time today, having refused to enter a plea before Squire Stech after being arrested.

The officers and prosecuting attorney A. C. Stevens state that the affair represents a most pitiful case. Neighbors in that vicinity complained and the matter was investigated. Schomel is charged with beating his 2½ year old daughter, Ruth Alverda, in an unmerciful manner. The child is also suffering from spinal trouble, the officers said.

According to information furnished by neighbors, the child was given a beating Saturday afternoon that lasted for an hour, and it continued on Sunday and Monday, according to their complaints. The baby has a step-mother, it is said, and it was intimated that some kind of a charge would be preferred against her.

WATSON TO ADDRESS INDIANA CONFERENCE

Protest Against Him Speaking Before
Laymen's Association—
Has No Effect

TO MAKE RELIGIOUS ADDRESS

Rushville friends of Senator James E. Watson will be pleased to learn that he will not be barred from delivering an address at Vincennes tomorrow afternoon, before the Laymen's Association of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which is now in session in that city.

Objection to Senator Watson speaking was raised by Schuyler McCormick of Vincennes who addressed a letter to Dr. J. V. Stephens, secretary of the conference, who lives at Spencer, stating as his objections that "Senator Watson's record of opposition to the League of Nations should bar him respectful attention in any pulpit in the state."

Dr. Stephens replied today, stating that Senator Watson is a lay member of the Methodist church and will deliver a religious address, and not a political speech, and that he can appear tomorrow afternoon, if he so desires.

Senator Watson's speech will be a discussion of the duty of the church to its ministers, especially retired ministers. His appearance need not mean that his views on political matters are sanctioned by the Laymen's Association, it is stated.

MAKING CIDER IS NOT LAW VIOLATION

Ruling of Federal Prohibition Commissioner Received Here Interprets National Act

MAY PUT UP FRUIT JUICES

Persons Permitted to Manufacture
Non-Intoxicating Drinks
Without a Permit

The ruling of John F. Kramer, federal prohibition commissioner, regarding the manufacture of non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices for use in the home, was received here today from Charles J. Orbison of Indianapolis, federal prohibition director for Indiana. It explains that persons manufacturing such non-intoxicating beverages may do so without a permit, and that they may also be sold, but certain restrictions are thrown about the purchaser, which are explained in the following ruling:

Section 29 of Title 11 of the National Prohibition Act provides that the penalties imposed in the act against the manufacture of liquor without a permit shall not apply to a person for manufacturing non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices shall not be sold or delivered except to persons having permits to manufacture vinegar.

The Bureau's interpretation of the foregoing provision is as follows: Any person may, without permit, and without giving bond, manufacture non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices, and in so doing he may take his apples or fruits to a custom mill and have them made into cider and fruit juices. After such non-intoxicating cider and fruit juices are made, they must be used exclusively in the home, and when so used, the phrase "nonintoxicating" means nonintoxicating in fact and not necessarily less than one-half of one per cent of alcohol, as provided in Section 1, of Title 11 of said Act.

Or if the person making such cider and fruit juices desires to do so, he may (1) sell such cider and fruit juices at any time to persons having permits to make vinegar; this he may do under the provisions of said Section 29. (2) If he preserves such cider and fruit juices at the time they are made, he may sell same to the public in general; this he may do under the provisions of Section 4, of Title 11, of said Act.

SAYS WOMEN ARE ALL FOR LEAGUE

Mrs. Alice Foster McCullough Addresses Democratic Meeting Here Wednesday Night

PARTY FAVORS RATIFICATION

Says Covenant Does Not Affect Congress' Power to Declare War But Imposes Moral Obligation

Mrs. Alice Foster McCullough of Fort Wayne, speaking at a democratic meeting in the coliseum last night, credited the democratic party with all the good legislation she mentioned and blamed the republican party for all the legislation she regarded as bad.

Mrs. McCullough addressed a crowd of probably four or five hundred persons, over half of whom were women, and was applauded a number of times, though with not any great vigor because the speaker evidently depended on the logic of her argument rather than any oratorical ability to impress the points she made.

The speaker praised a democratic congress for passing a child labor law and criticized a republican legislature in Indiana for refusing to pass a similar measure.

"The democratic party favors ratifying the peace treaty with clarifying reservations," declared Mrs. McCullough. "It does not claim that the league of nations will prevent war, but that it will reduce war to the minimum."

She asserted that the league is workable and that it is functioning now, which she regarded as proof enough that it would continue to operate and be a benefit to humanity.

"There are 31,000 reasons why the women of America will vote for the league," the speaker asserted. "These reasons are the boys—sons, husbands, fathers and brothers—who gave their lives during the World War."

Mrs. McCullough referred to Article 10 of the covenant, reading parts of it and called attention to the fact that it did not stipulate expressly that America should provide soldiers to settle foreign disputes but that it states the league shall protect member nations from foreign aggression. The speaker declared.

FARMERS LIMITED TO 40 BUSHELS OF WHEAT

Are Permitted to Have Enough Seed Tested to Plant a Twenty Acre Field

PLANT WILL OPEN MONDAY

County Agent D. W. Ball today wished to call attention to the farmers who are intending to bring wheat to be treated, that the limit for one farmer is not five bushels, as previously announced, but through an error in the newspaper it was so printed. The limit this year will be forty bushels, or enough seed to plant a 20 acre field.

A confusion arose over the mentioning of five bushels, as only five bushels can be given the hot water treatment at a time, as the container will hold only that amount. The work at the treating plant is nearing completion, and will be ready for the first wheat on Monday morning.

The farmers who have signed up to bring seed wheat to the treating plant, are urged to follow the directions given them, and also make their appointments on time, so that the plan will be in continuous operation all day.

It is a regrettable fact that the mistake about the limit of wheat, was published, but the farmers who intend to bring the wheat will learn differently by reading the instructions sent out by the county agent. There are still a few open dates, and those who wish to be booked for the treatment, may avail themselves of the opportunity, if they act at once.

BLACK ELECTED 5TH CONSECUTIVE TIME

Local Pastor Again Chosen M. E. Conference Statistician—Report Shows Church Flourishes

EXPECTS TO BE RETURNED

The Rev. C. S. Black, pastor of the M. E. church in this city, is attending the Indiana annual conference this week at Vincennes, and is busily engaged on the board of examiners testing the merits and fitness of candidates for the Methodist ministry. The local pastor was also re-elected as the conference statistician for the fifth consecutive year, and has charge of the work of compiling the statistics for the entire conference of 320 pastoral charges.

The Rev. Mr. Black expects to be returned to Rushville for his fourth year, and reported the best record of the history of the local church, which closed its church year last Sunday. The report of the Rev. Mr. Black stated that there are 760 members in the congregation, a net gain of 55 for the year.

During the year there was also 29 adults and 7 infants baptized. The congregation has paid in cash for all purposes, the total sum of $14,500, of which $9,000 went to the support of the benevolent enterprises of the local church.

During the year which closed last Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Black conducted 38 funerals and officiated at 43 wedding ceremonies.

JURY STILL HAS CONTRACT SUIT

No Decision This Afternoon in Case of Y. Stout Against O. N. Brown Which Started Yesterday

CHANGE OF VENUE GRANTED

$10,000 Damage Suit of Ralph Pitman Against Glen Somerville Sent to Fayette County

The case which started in circuit court yesterday of Will Y. Stout against Oliver N. Brown, was concluded with the evidence and arguments last evening, and this morning the jury was instructed and the case was then turned over to them for a decision, but this afternoon, no verdict had been rendered at three o'clock.

Stout brought the suit against Brown, alleging damages for a breach of contract, and demanded $295 judgment. The witnesses were examined yesterday, and the arguments were concluded before court adjourned late yesterday.

The jury this morning was instructed in writing by Judge Sparks, and had the case at 9:15.

Judge Sparks this afternoon was busy hearing a juvenile case, which was filed this morning in that court, and involved the negligence of a baby.

The $10,000 damage suit filed recently by Ralph Pitman of near Glenwood, against Glen Somerville, a local high school boy, has been sent to the Fayette county circuit court on a change of venue, the plaintiff being granted the change.

Somerville is alleged to have driven his automobile carelessly and negligently along the public highway in Glenwood this spring, and struck the four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pitman, killing the child instantly.

The father at that time filed a manslaughter charge against the high school boy, but the grand jury investigated and returned an ignominious to the charge, which dismissed the action.

A few days ago the plaintiff in the action, filed a petition with the court, asking for a change from the county stating that he could not be given a fair and impartial trial in this county.

Preston Grubb dismissed his case against William H. Eitenberry and Alva N. Haydel, for forcible entry.

RUSH COUNTY TO BREAK IN MOVIES

Camera Man Promises Today to Come to Rushville to Film Community Picnic

FOR PATHE NEWS WEEKLY

Hustle and Bustle at City Park Today Preparing for County-Wide Event Tomorrow

Town To Be Closed Tight
Rushville will be closed tight as a wedge tomorrow from 11 until 3 o'clock. All places of business will shut their doors and even the postoffice, which ordinarily closes only on legal holidays, will break its long custom and follow the lead of the merchants. Deliveries will be made and mail dispatched as usual.

Definite assurance that the community picnic at the city park tomorrow would be filmed for Pathe News was received today by Walter F. Easley, chairman of the amusement committee. The fame of Rush county as a producer of chickens as well as chicken eaters will thus be spread throughout the midwest, and there is a chance that if the thing looks big enough to the Pathe people, that it will be included in the regular news weeky shown in practically every town and city in the United States.

Mr. Easley went to Indianapolis Tuesday to invite a camera man to Rushville Friday to take a picture of the event. He received an indefinite answer, but this morning a message came by telephone that if the weather does not interfere, there will be a lot of "shooting" going on tomorrow when the festivities get well under way.

It is probable that not all of the film made here will be put in the regular Pathe weekly, but the whole thing will be preserved and an effort will be made to get it here. It is possible that it would be valuable.

A telephone was being installed at the city park today for the use of people attending the community picnic tomorrow. The number is 2172.

Purdue university's extension department to demonstrate what can be done in the line of community development, in which event it would be shown throughout the state and would be a great advertisement for Rush county.

There was a lot of hustle and bustle at the city park today in making preparations for the big day tomorrow. The four tents under which the chicken dinners will be served were being erected, as were the serving tables. The service will be of the cafeteria order, three townships being stationed under each tent. Every person is urged to take a fork and spoon with them.

Button hole tags were being distributed in Rushville today to make sure that every guest who had an invitation would be properly labeled. The guests will include every business man in Rush county, his family and his employees; also the ministers of the county and all of the postal employees, together with their families. The guests of the farmers are expected to be at the I. & C. traction station at 11:15 tomorrow morning and form a parade to the city park.

MEXICAN RAILROAD PROBLEM SERIOUS

Torreón Once Center of Network of Lines Now Boasts One Train a Day From Capital to Border

BANDITS WRECK RAILWAYS

De La Huerta Government Have Taken Steps to Replenish Equipment in Purchases From U. S.

By RALPH H. TURNER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Torreón, Coahuila, Mexico, August 28 (By Mail).—The run-down condition of Mexico's railroads probably is better illustrated in Torreón than in any other city of the Republic. In the heart of a wealthy agricultural and mining district, supporting smelters and various other industries, Torreón rightfully earned its position as one of the country's leading railroad centers.

But with the present depreciated condition of the Mexican railroads, Torreón is not receiving just dividends from the network of rail lines that passes through the city.

The conductor operating from Mexico City to Torreón threw light on the situation as his train neared this city five hours late.

"Only one train a day," he explained, "leaves the capital on the northward trip to Ciudad, Jarez, via Torreón. That might be sufficient if there were any local trains. But there are not. And there are scarcely any freight trains, either. As a result, everything possible is shipped by express and this train, the only passenger train on the line, must stop at every station to load or unload merchandise."

There are no local trains, because there are not sufficient cars nor engines. The same explanation goes for the scarcity of freights. Frequently, three or four freight cars are hooked on to a passenger train causing heavy delay to passengers who may have some concern as to when they reach their destination.

So long as the scarcity of rolling stock continues, so long must a shipper resort to graft if he desires to obtain a car in reasonable time. By the clink of gold within hearing distance of a petty railroad official, the merchant may obtain his necessary freight space. Without this jingle, his chances are materially decreased. Torreón, with its many agricultural and manufactured products is one of the heaviest sufferers from this shortage of cars. Three American smelters, located in this district, are more fortunate. They own their own cars.

Ten years of revolution naturally have played havoc with the Mexican railroad system. Today it probably has reached the lowest ebb, consistent with any functioning whatever. Cars have been destroyed by rebel and bandit factions, the sides have been torn from others to be used for fire wood, bridges have been destroyed and hastily reconstructed and parts of the roadbed have been greatly damaged. In all this time, little money has been spent for maintenance.

The De la Huerta government, however, has recognized that the railroad problem is one of the most pressing in the entire country and already has taken steps to replenish the equipment in purchases from the United States. There is some discussion, also, of returning the roads to the American bondholder, but no definite decision has been reached.

In one respect the railway is a vast improvement over the conditions which existed under Carranza. With the increased pacification of the country in the past two months, it is now possible for the trains to run at night, a rick that was never taken with dynamites abroad. Nine trains arrive in Torreón daily and nine depart, but until the present all the incoming trains reached the city in the evening and the outgoing trains all left in the morning. With the belief that it is now safe to operate at night, the railroad administration plans to rearrange the schedule.

White Candidate Cox rails at the republicans for raising a large campaign fund, the government's mails are being laden with free political propaganda obviating the necessity of the democratic organization paying this heavy item of expense. Attention has recently been called to the fact that the republican campaign is being financed in Ohio, being freighted through the mails, and now further light is shed on the methods of the democratic campaign managers by a dispatch from Washington to a New York newspaper.

The dispatch describes sacks of bulging mail piled on the marble corridors of the house of representatives building, which will be used to flood the country with propaganda at a minimum cost to the democratic war chest but at some expense to the taxpayers and to the detriment of the white paper supply.

The Washington story further relates that on the first floor of the office building as the headquarters of Representative Henry D. Flood, (Va.), chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, who is directing the attempt to elect a Democratic House. The offices are large and commodious and are rent free to the Democrats, despite the fact that they are being used for a purely political purpose now.

The stacks of bulging mail sacks stretch on either side of the Democratic suite. At one time eight large piles of sacks were counted. In three of the piles there were more than fifty sacks by actual count. Other piles were somewhat smaller, but the stacks were easily piled more than 100 high.

Near the top of each of these sacks was a slip showing that it contained Democratic speeches printed at the Government Printing Office. As part of the Congressional Record the speeches, while avowedly campaign propaganda, can be circulated to the voters free of postage.

Thus the Democratic campaign managers by using careful economy, can distribute many speeches at small cost. They can get them printed at Government printing office at cost. They can have them folded and delivered to their offices for which they pay no rent. They can store them in the corridors for visitors and House employees to walk around or trip over. Practically the only operation the Democrats have to pay for is the addressing of envelopes and stuffing the speeches back into the mail sacks from whence they came.

Just what part the speeches are going to play in the campaign is not clear. Most of them were delivered weeks ago. It is not within reason to suppose, therefore, that any considerable number of voters will sit down by the fireside to read the speeches in order to be convinced that voting for a Democrat is the thing to do.

Officials at the Capitol say there is no way that the use of public buildings for purely partisan purposes can be stopped even though any of them had a mind to do so. It was pointed out, however, that Republicans, who could have taken advantage of their privileges, have hired a suite of offices in a downtown office building here as their campaign headquarters.

Gov. Cox exclaimed in a speech at Anaconda, Montana that the "proofs of my charges are falling like dew from Heaven", but the "proofs" of the governors' charges are standing the temperature on earth about like dew in Hades.

There is an income-taxpayer in one out of every four families and 4,900,000 out of 5,000,000 who pay income tax, pay it on incomes of $5,000 or less. They will probably do a lot of thinking before they go to the polls election day.

It is rumored that Frank Roosevelt is having trouble with his voice. It would be a source of great regret on the part of the Republicans if he or Gov. Cox either were compelled to leave the stump.

The French government is going to resell the immense lot of war material which it bought from the United States for a mere song in order to raise funds to meet the interest on a foreign loan.

There is a lot of difference between being cock-sure and Cox-sure.

DECLARES ROOSEVELT MUST STAND CORRECTED

R. F. Webb of Charlottesville, Va., writing to the Sun and New York Herald, says that Franklin D. Roosevelt, democratic candidate for vice-president, will have to stand corrected on a statement he made recently in regard to the league of nations. Mr. Webb is evidently a student of the question and points out in the following where the candidate made a very grievous error in an assertion in regard America's voting strength:

In explaining his reported statement as to the votes controlled by the United States in the League of Nations Mr. Roosevelt disposes of the 6 to 1 vote of Great Britain in this wise: "All of this discussion, however, is of a very secondary importance in view of the clear statement in Article V. of the League of Nations: 'Decisions at any meeting of the Assembly or of the Council' shall require the agreement of all members of the League represented in the meeting." Following this statement we find this language: "Furthermore, it is well known that the Council is the true governing body of the League."

Mr. Roosevelt did not begin his quotation at the opening of the sentence from which it was taken, and that makes a difference. The complete sentence is necessary in order to get at the truth of the matter. It follows:

Except where otherwise expressly provided in this covenant or by the terms of the present treaty, decisions at any meetings of the Assembly or of the Council shall require the agreement of all the members of the League represented at the meeting. (Paragraph 1, Article V.)

I shall call attention to two instances in the covenant alone where it is "otherwise expressly provided". First: "All matters of procedure at meetings of the Assembly or of the Council, including the appointment of committees to investigate particular matters, shall be regulated by the Assembly or by the Council and may be decided by a majority of the members of the League represented at the meeting". (Paragraph 2, Article V.)

Second: "In any case referred to the Assembly all the provisions of this article and of Article XII, relating to the action and powers of the Council shall apply to the action and powers of the Assembly, provided that a report made by the Assembly, if concurred in by the representatives of those members of the League represented on the Council and of a majority of the other members of the League, exclusive in each case of the representatives of the parties to the dispute, shall have the same force as a report by the Council concurred in by all the members thereof other than the representatives of one or more of the parties to the dispute". (Last paragraph, Article XV.) This is not unanimity, and one will see that it is quite important if one but reads Article XV. in its entirety.

I am not prepared to say how many times it is "otherwise expressly provided" in the treaty proper.

In regard to the Council being "the true governing body" the statement must be modified to some extent. The covenant says "The Assembly may deal at its meetings with any matter within the sphere of action of the League as affecting the peace of the world" (paragraph 3, Article III.), and "the Council may in any case under this article refer the dispute to the Assembly. The dispute shall be so referred at the request of either party to the dispute, provided that such request be made within fourteen days after the submission of the dispute to the Council". (Paragraph 9, Article XV.), immediately following this is the paragraph quoted above setting forth the fact that a unanimous decision is not necessary.

GAMBLING STILL POPULAR IN CITIES

Prohibition of Whiskey Has Had Little or no Effect on Prevalence of Gambling in U. S.

CRAPS FAVORITE SPORT
Police Authorities in Eighteen Cities Furnished United Press With Information

New York, Sept. 16.—Prohibition of whiskey, wines and beer has had little or no net effect on the prevalence of gambling throughout the United States, according to reports furnished the United Press by police authorities in eighteen cities.

Replying to the question whether there was a decrease or increase of gambling, such as racetrack betting, poker playing, crap shooting and the like—nine cities showed opinions that there was a decrease, while nine said gaming had increased since the country went dry.

In nearly every city, however, officials said shooting dice was the favorite sport of a large majority of gamblers, with poker, bookmaking and baseball pools following in order.

Following is a digest of the replies from the police and local authorities.

NEW YORK—Gambling has increased here within the last year. Police and plainclothes men have made more frequent raids and the number of arrests has been a perceptible increase. The police said that the prohibition of alcoholic beverages has had little or no effect on the prevalence of gambling in the city.

CHICAGO—There has been a decrease in gambling in Chicago, according to Chief of Police Connelley. There have been practically no complaints of poker playing or bookmaking, but "African golf" (craps) games have been discovered several times on the Lake Front.

PHILADELPHIA—Gambling here is on the decline, said Superintendent of Police Mills, who was inclined to credit the condition to greater police vigilance rather than to an actual falling off of the "sport." Shooting craps leads in popularity. Arrests have been few.

BOSTON—There is a "slight increase" in gambling here, police say. Poker and craps appear to be running a neck and neck race for popularity. While there have not been more than a dozen main raids in a year, police assert they have encountered more gambling this year formerly.

CLEVELAND—The gambling fever has hit the old and young, the strong and the weak, police say. "Everybody" is indulging, they said, and the net result in Cleveland is there is a "tremendous" increase in gaming here. Police have been busy arresting professional gamblers but family "affairs" have for the most part have been unmolested.

DETROIT—Gambling is on the increase here. Police declare most arrests in the last year have been race track and crap gamblers.

SAN FRANCISCO—Gambling has been increasing here, police say. The prohibition of alcoholic beverages has had little or no effect on the prevalence of gambling in the city.

WASHINGTON—Proximity of racetracks to Washington have made betting the chief form of gaming here, police said. Generally speaking, however, they said, gambling has shown a "marked" decrease in the past year.

INDIANAPOLIS—Chief Jerry Kinney of the local police declared gaming has increased here in the past year. Crap shooting leads all other forms of amusement, he said. There have been few poker games raided.

ATLANTA—"Mississippi marbles" come in, or just plain craps have furnished most of the amusement in Atlanta, where gambling has decreased in the period since prohibition, said the chief of police. Most of the "arrestees" have been negroes.

ST. PAUL—There are practically no gambling "joints" in St. Paul and gambling here has "greatly" decreased, police say. Numerous raids on slot machines, poker games and the like have "cleared 'em all out," they declared.

DALLAS—Most of the gambling here recently has been among Negroes and workers in neighboring oil fields. The "amusement" has seen quite a slack time, however, police say. Police have heard reports of fabulous sums said to have been won or lost in the course of an evening's sitting around a "pair of bones," but the arrests have been made.

COLUMBUS—Police here have been carrying on a campaign against gambling in any form, and as a result there has been a noticeable decrease in gaming. There have been several recent raids on downtown "mushroom" joints, however.

SAN ANTONIO—Poker and craps lead in popularity here as "ruff-neck" gambling amusements, while dominoes flourish in the clubs and homes. On the whole, however, there has been a decrease in games of risk.

OKLAHOMA CITY—Wiseacres say gambling is increasing here. Poker for the old folks and "galloping dominoes" for the younger generation are the favorite forms.

SURINGFIELD, ILL.—Fan tan, craps and poker games abound hereabouts, police declare. There has been a "big increase" in gambling in the past year, they say.

LINCOLN, NEB.—Chief Anderson

SAID THERE IS "LITTLE OR NO" GAMBLING HERE.

ANNISTON, ALA.—Arrests for gambling have fallen off here in the last year, police said. "Rolling the bones" is the favorite form of indoor sport.

TAIL LIGHTS BATTLING LIKE A HOUSE AFIRE

Six Members of Team Have Average Above 300 and Others Are Not Far Below That

ANDERSON COMING SUNDAY

The Tail Lights are continuing to hit the ball hard, as can be seen from the list of batting averages submitted by Manager Conway, which shows that six members of the team are hitting above the 300 percent mark, with Hobart topping the list at 360 percent.

The game Sunday promises to be a good attraction, with the Anderson Seftons as the opponents. This team has been scheduled to play here on two occasions before, when rain interfered. Plummer will pitch for the locals and the usual line-up will be used.

The batting averages for the players during the last several games played, are as follows:

CONTROVERSY UP TO LABOR FEDERATION

Solution of Affairs in Italy Involving 2,000,000 Workers, Will be Decided by Them

GOVERNMENT IN A WARNING

Rome, Sept. 16.—Solution of the economic controversy in Italy has passed into the hands of the confederation of labor representing nearly 2,000,000 workers and the confederation of industry representing more than $2,000,000,000 capital, according to Senator Conti.

The meeting of the confederation of industry in Milan was expected to reach an epoch-making decision affecting Italy's national and industrial future.

Many observers were not in opposition to a mandate permitting workers to share in profiteering and allow representation in the administration of each industry. They opposed, however, any attempt of the union to intervene in the action of man-

WOMEN JURORS SERVED INDIAN WAR MOTHERS AT BRISTOL SESSIONS ORGANIZE AT BISMARCK

Counsel Prosecuting in First Case Congratulated Them on at Last Taking Their Proper Place

ONE OF THEM APPREHENSIVE

Bristol, (By Mail)—Women jurors have just served at the Bristol Sessions for the first time.

Counsel prosecuting in the first case paid them a warm tribute. "I congratulate you on at last taking your proper place in the jurisdiction of the country," he said "and I congratulate the cause of justice itself".

The women jurors, however, were not quite certain how much congratulation they required. One of them was apprehensive about her three children whom she had to leave unattended, and another had been obliged to close her shop to serve on the jury.

This was probably their first taste of the bitter which has to be swallowed with the sweets of sex-equality.

SAYS WOMEN ARE ALL FOR LEAGUE

clared that since the vote of the council of nine members shall be unanimous and that the general assembly is only for discussing questions coming before the league, the following might be deducted:

"That the league of nations does not place the United States in a position where it might be coerced into war.

"The league does not place peace above justice and that there may be times when war is justifiable.

"The league does not prevent the union of existing nations.

"The league does not affect the power of congress to declare war though congress would be morally bound by the covenant".

Mrs. McCullough said that women all over the country favor the league because it is the only method of preventing war. She asserted Gov. Cox had stated he favored going in while Sen. Harding, in endeavoring to please the various elements in his party, had made uncertain statements regarding his position on the peace treaty. The speaker ridiculed Harding's record and attitude on prohibition and woman's suffrage and quoted some of his statements.

Mrs. McCullough said the democratic party favors the recognition of women in every line and a revision of the civil service to place them on an equal footing with men. She emphasized the necessity of organization and urged women, who had not registered to do so, that they might be qualified for voting.

A parade led by the Odd Fellows band was held before the meeting.

THOMPSON MEN LEAD

INDIANS FOUGHT IN THE WAR

(By United Press)

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 16.—The first chapter of Indian War Mothers has been organized at Standing Rock as a part of the American War Mothers. This was the result of a plan formulated by Mrs. Alice French, national war mother on her recent visit to Bismarck and carried out by the women of the Bismarck chapter of the organization.

One hundred and eighteen young Indian braves enlisted in the United States army at the outbreak of the war from the Standing Rock and Fort Yates districts. They went overseas and several distinguished themselves for bravery in the Argonne fighting.

Standing Rock is Sitting Bull's old agency. It was from here he led his warriors to the Custer massacre on the Little Big Horn in 1876. Here he made his home after his return from his long exile in Canada and here was killed by Indian police during the ghost-dancing excitement of 1889-90 which reached its climax at the battle of Wounded Knee.

Within the memory of the Indian mothers now united by the war with the white mothers of the nation, the Sioux were deadly enemies of the whites and visited with fire and death the lonely settlements on the prairies where now the homes of immigrants present a picture of peace and prosperity. With the war path forgot, the Standing Rock Indians are learning the customs of civilization and have acquired considerable farm wealth. Many of the later generation are well educated and a number of the young men and women are college graduates.

Unwoven Persian Rugs

The author of a book called "When I Was a Boy in Persia" says that certain rugs used in Persian houses have not yet found a place in the American market. These are large felt carpets called lumta. They are made, not by weaving, but by beating the wool together and then pressing it. They are very thick, warm and noiseless, with red, cream and white borders, and with a field dotted with red, black, white, green, blue and golden circles of wool—quite a Joseph's coat in color.—The Outlook.

"Sick Abed"—Princess Theatre

Wallace Reid in a spirited screen version of the stage farce, "Sick Abed," will be the attraction at the Princess Theatre today and tomorrow.

The story concerns one Reginald Jay, who gets himself into laughable complications through trying to help an old friend of his father's out of a scrape. The latter has earned the wrath of his jealous wife because he went to a roadhouse with a certain lady customer of his firm. Reginald is wanted as a star witness in the pending divorce suit. To escape, he feigns sick and a pretty nurse is assigned to attend him. Not only does Reggie put over the deception successfully, but he wins the nurse in the bargain.

Vivacious Bebe Daniels figures as the nurse and an excellent comedy team-mate for Mr. Reid. Winifred Greenwood, John Stepping and Tully Marshall are also in the supporting cast. The picture, which is a Paramount Artercraft, was directed by Sam Wood.

Four of the best known screen and stage stars, thirty principals and a supporting cast of more than a hundred, are seen in the screen version of the famous story "Trilby," a Republic release which is to be shown at the Mystic theatre tomorrow. Clara Kimball Young, Wilton Lackaye, Chester Barnett and Paul McAllister are the featured players in this famous drama. The screen version was directed by Maurice Tourneur, one of the foremost directors of the screen.

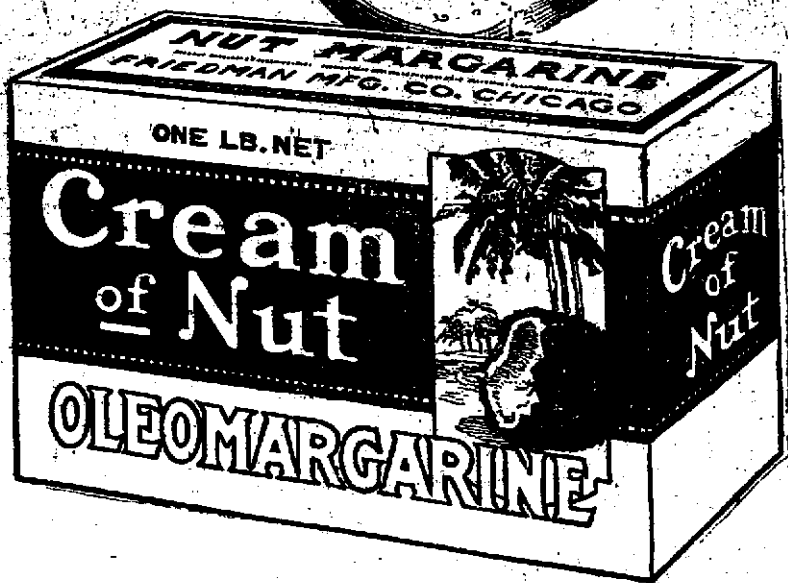

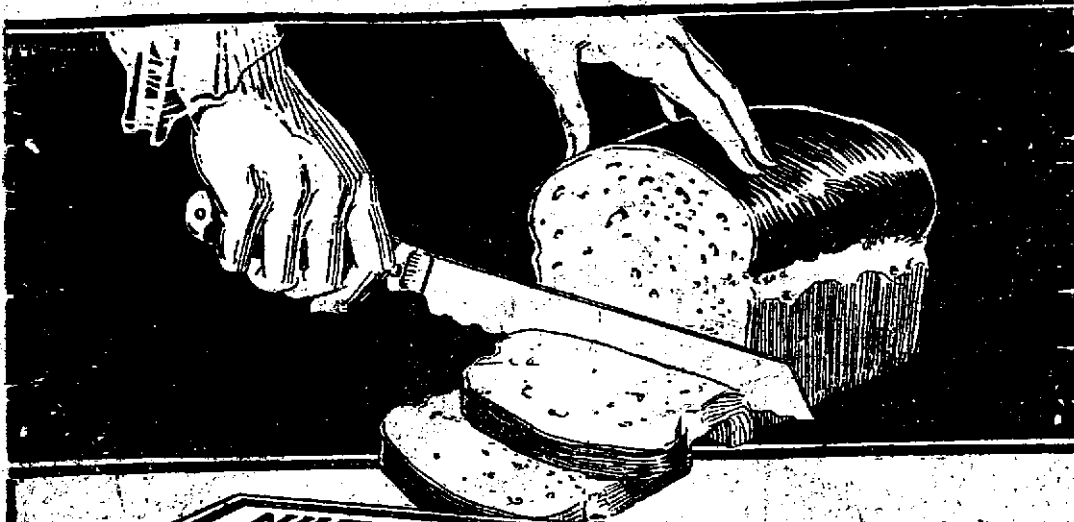

The famous story, "Trilby" was first put on the stage in London in 1895 and Wilton Lackaye had the original role of the character "Svengali". Now that the drama has been given a screen version all the bigger scenes are included and every dramatic point of the entire story has been brought out to the fullest extent. This production ranks as one of the greatest screen triumphs of years, and Miss Young, who has many successes to her credit, is seen in the most dramatic role of her career.

"Trilby" as a screen play, is a most entertaining, gripping drama and many things have been accomplished that would have been utterly impossible to other than a well-trained group of players.

Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-Four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed your druggist to guarantee it in every instance.—(Advt.)

JAPAN MAY GET OUT OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Will Make Fight For Recognition of Racial Equality When General Assembly Meets Nov. 15

IF SHE LOSES, MAY WITHDRAW.

Paris, Sept. 16—The question of racial equality for Japan, over which the Versailles peace conference nearly split, will be one of the most important problems to come before the general assembly of the league of nations which is scheduled to meet November 15, in Geneva, in pursuance to the call of President Wilson.

Having failed to get recognition in the treaty of Versailles owing largely to the opposition of American and British colonial delegations, Japan proposes to bring the matter before the league assembly, it was learned today.

The belief is expressed that if Japan fails to get the racial equality that would give her immigrants equal rights and privileges with those of other countries, she will withdraw from the league.

In preparation for the fight she expects to make, Japan has reserved accommodations at Geneva for the largest delegation that has yet made known their intentions of attending the assembly meeting.

PRESIDENT IS INVITED

Is Asked to Take Part in Democratic Campaign This Fall

New York, Sept. 16—President Wilson is to be invited by the Democratic national committee to participate actively in the campaign for Governor Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

This announcement was made by George White, national chairman of the democratic committee, following a receipt of information from Washington that the president would be willing to make such an effort if he were able.

Senator Harrison of the democratic speaker's bureau said that the only reason why the president had not been heretofore asked to assist in the campaign was on account of his physical condition would not permit.

Butter and Eggs via Motor Express

IN addition to over a million farmer-owned automobiles, 18,000 farmer-owned trucks, and approximately 100,000 farm tractors, there are 519 motorized Express Companies doing business in the states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and this number is growing day by day.

Automotive Industries for 1920 declares "Trucks are operating on railroad schedules, and have proved more dependable, on a time basis, than the steam roads have ever been. Their use to replace the freight car for certain classes of freight has proved a marked success."

The Smithsonian Institute, United States National Museum Bulletin 102, says, "In respect to prompt delivery of farm produce, whether to railways or directly to towns, the motor truck has an exceptionally useful opportunity."

It is these motor trucks, tractors and farmer-owned automobiles that are largely increasing gasoline consumption, particularly in the Middle West.

During the first four months of 1920, the production of gasoline increased 13 1/2%, while during the same period, domestic consumption of gasoline increased 33 1/2%. This excess of consumption over production has been a potent factor in the advance of gasoline prices, but the dominant underlying reason has been the increase in the cost of crude oil.

The service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) lies in manufacturing and distributing to the tractor, the truck, and the automobile a dependable supply of gasoline and lubricating oils, and selling them at a fair price. The latest refinery methods are producing a continually increasing percentage of gasoline from each barrel of crude oil. While large-scale production and distribution assure maximum economy in this industry, the savings effected by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are utilized to hold down gasoline prices despite the rising tide of demand for petroleum products.

For the middle-aged or elderly person who requires one pair of glasses for reading and another pair for out-door use, we recommend our Invisible Bifocal or double vision glasses.

They are really two pairs of glasses in one—two fused together without any visible joining. There is no prominent seam or joint to tell the public that the wearer is "getting along in years."

With our Invisible Bifocals even your closest friends cannot detect that you are wearing double vision glasses. Call and see them.

WILL TALK ENTRANCE OF LEGION IN POLITICS

Convention of American Legion to Meet in Cleveland Sept. 27 and Will Run For Three Days

ADVOCATE LEGION TICKET.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 16.—When the convention of the American Legion meets in Cleveland on Sept. 27, to run for three days, the question of the entrance of the veterans' organization into politics is certain to come up for discussion according to reports gathered from various states by the American Legion Legion Weekly. California Legionnaires have advocated placing a Legion ticket in the field and unofficial reports from Oklahoma and Tennessee have told of the activity of individual Legionnaires in the campaigns of candidates for state and national public offices. The attention of the Legionnaires in these campaigns has been focussed on the candidates war records.

Friendly rivalry between various cities for the 1921 convention of the Legion now is being manifested. Bids for next year's meeting will be advanced by at least four big cities through their delegates. San Francisco, Detroit, Kansas City and New Orleans already are in the competition and many other cities are expected to follow their lead.

FRESHLY SAWED MAPLE DESTROYED BY INSECTS

Edinburg Lumber Company Reports
Big Loss to a Pile of Lumber in
Their Yards

ENTOMOLOGIST IS INFORMED.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 16—An undetermined species of insect has ruined over $6,000 of freshly sawed maple in the yards of the Amos Lumber Co. at Edinburg in the last few days, according to a report of the company to the state department of conservation. Only meager information of the destruction came to the state entomologist with an appeal for him to come to Edinburg at once and wage war on the devastating insect. According to the lumber company, the loss was not observed until a day or so ago. So rapidly has the insect worked that several thousand dollars worth of sawed maple is ruined and rendered worthless and more timber is threatened. State Entomologist Wallace will personally investigate the situation.

The powder post beetle is causing serious damage in several Indianapolis homes, reports to the department show. It appears the beetles infested rough lumber used inside the veneer work. The best evidence at hand show the beetles have been at work for a year or two in this rough interior and now, having eaten their way through the veneer and varnish, are appearing in considerable numbers on the exterior of the finished wood. Little can be done where the infected wood is in a house, but the rest can be promptly eradicated by kiln drying the lumber, Mr. Wallace says. He advises that after the lumber has been kiln dried it should be stacked away from lumber not so treated and of which there is danger of the beetle infesting.
